About Year Up

Year Up is a one-year training program that provides young adults with a combination of hands-on skills development, coursework, corporate job internships, and support. The first 6 months students develop skills in the classroom. During the second 6 months, students intern at a corporate office. Coursework is eligible for college credit and students earn an educational money stipend.

Who is eligible for Year Up:

- 18-24 years old
- High school graduate or GED recipient
 - Of low to moderate income
- A U.S. Citizen, permanent resident, or have an employment authorization card
- Available 5 days a week (Monday-Friday) for the full year of the program
- Highly motivated to learn new technical and professional skills
- Have not obtained a bachelor's degree
